Summertime at Seaside seethes with sleek, shining swimmers. Hippo and bird, elephant and dog, cat and stork all enjoy themselves. There we find Milton Mouse and his best girl. Unable to pet in privacy, they give it up.

Milt blows up water wings for Rita, who swims out on them. A swordfish punctures the wings and the little mouse sinks, yelling for help. Milt grabs a balloon from a vendor, sails to the life-saving station, where he summons the brave water laddie.

Their boat is shot out to sea, where after a battle with a swordfish and a tift with the life-savers our hero has the heroine in his arms.

AESOP SAYS:

"IT'S QUEER HOW A MAN WILL CHASE A GIRL
UNTIL SHE CHASES HIM."
